A FEAST OF BARGAINS

The new Bolinger Store will open at the new location in about two weeks. We will tell you about that later. In the meantime we are going to close out every dollars worth possible of the present stock, going to hold a removal sale that will be THE BARGAIN EVENT OF THE YEAR. Almost the entire stock is new fall and winter goods, bought especially for the new store, but owing to building delays we have been compelled to open up and put on sale as best we could. However, we have had a record August and September business, and to close the old location with one of the GREATEST SALES in its history, we are going to empty out all the NEW, UP-TO-DATE GOODS at prices you CANNOT RESIST. ### Millinery In The Removal Sale

And it is right when we should be having our opening. Three-fourths of our customers have not provided themselves with a new fall hat. However, we are going to give you the same advantage in this department as in the others. It is a hard matter to group this millinery together in lots as our space is so small that we cannot show half our stock. So we have decided to make a uniform discount to everybody on every item for the next ten days to two weeks before we move. Any hat in the department at 25 per cent off the original.

A $10.00 Hat $7.50 A $5.00 Hat $3.75 A $3.00 Hat $2.25

Final Close of the Old Bargain Basement

At the time we closed this department—almost a year ago—we had left, a great variety of odds and ends of china, tin and earthenware, hardware, wooden ware, etc. Not enough of anything to amount to much, but taken together it amounts to considerable. We have simply awaited a time—that out—that suited, and now that we move and will not handle anything formerly handled in this department, we are going to name prices that will simply attract your attention. We are going to open a part of the basement and sell the goods there. In this department we cannot name prices; but in going to this department we promise you a run of bargains what you want and at prices that have no relation to original value.

Everything spread out so that you can see it quickly.

Some rare and beautiful China awaits you.
